Miscellaneous

Attendance: Is not mandatory, but it is why you should be in college.

Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty will lead to failure of the course and other University disciplinary action. See General Information Catalog:

“Academic dishonesty” or “scholastic dishonesty” includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, falsifying academic records, misrepresenting facts, and any act designed to give unfair academic advantage to the student (such as, but not limited to, submission of essentially the same written assignment for two classes without the prior permission of the instructor), or the attempt to commit such an act.

The UT honor code is as follows: “As a student of The University of Texas at Austin, I shall abide by the core values of the University and uphold academic integrity.”

Disabilities: The University of Texas at Austin provides upon request appropriate academic accommodations for qualified students with disabilities. For more information, contact the Division of Diversity and Community Engagement, Services for Students with Disabilities, 471-6259, <http://ddce.utexas.edu/disability/>

Emergencies: The following recommendations regarding emergency evacuation from the Office of Campus Safety and Security, 512-471-4441, <http://www.utexas.edu/safety/>

Occupants of buildings on The University of Texas at Austin campus are required to evacuate buildings when a fire alarm is activated. Alarm activation or announcement requires exiting and assembling outside.

Familiarize yourself with all exit doors of each classroom and building you may occupy. Remember that the nearest exit door may not be the one you used when entering the building.
